4.0 Complaints and Appeals Procedure

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Integrated College Glengormley encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance.

A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the Head of centre to Miss S Doheny (Examinations Officer) or Mr P Clarke (Deputy Headteacher).

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/career) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A formal complaint should be submitted in writing by completing a complaints and appeals form (See Page 7)
- Forms are available from the school office.
- Completed forms should be returned to or Mr P Clarke or R Massey.
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 calendar days.

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 3 working weeks.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form (See Page 7) has to be made within 14 working days of the original decision.
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 working days (See Page 8)
- The appeal will be referred to Chair of Governors.

The Chair of Governors (or Committee) will inform the appellant of the final conclusion in due course
